Falconer School

Achieving the extraordinary together

Headteacher's Weekly Blog Friday 10 September

Dear Parents and Carers,

As we reach the end of our first full week back in school I would like to take the opportunity to formally welcome a few new members of staff to Falconer School:

- Mr Murray – Deputy Headteacher
- Mrs Stanbury – Art Teacher and T & L mentor
- Miss Scott – Art and Craft Teacher
- Mrs MacEwan – School Business and Office Manager

It has been lovely to welcome all the students back into their new Year groups and also our new cohort of Year 7 students.

Our Year 11 students from last year received their exam results in August and I would like to congratulate the students for their hard work and wish them the very best of luck in their new courses at college. Particular congratulations go to:

Alex – achieved 8 qualifications in total (maths, English, double science, art, catering, PE and ICT)
Karl – achieved 7 qualifications in total (maths, English, double science, art, PE and construction)
Jamie, Blake, Zach and Alfie – all achieved 6 qualifications in total

Learning this week

It has been lovely to see the Year 7, 8 and 9 students use the new school library in their weekly library lessons and pop into form groups to see the boys listening to their tutors read them a text. Mrs Seed, Associate Leader responsible for Whole School Literacy, has launched a Word of the Week initiative. The word for this week was EMBARK – did your son use this word at home? Next week our word is PERPLEXED so do try and notice if they use this word at home.

Over the summer we extended our KS4 dining area into the courtyard area. This area has had a new floor and a canopy added to create a lovely outdoor dining area:

Many thanks for your continued support.

Mrs Ash
